BREAK IN WATER MAINS.

Occurred Saturday Night on Thirteenth East and First South.

Caused by Digging of the Sewer Trench from the University Buildings.

A break in the water main on Thirteenth East and First South streets occurred late Saturday night, which had the effect of badly frightening the people living in that neighborhood. The first thing noticed was the shooting up of a huge jet of water into the air, accompanied by a terrific roar. Investigation showed that the eight-inch water main, which leads down from the relief tank on the reservation, had parted at one of the joints. Word was sent the waterworks department, and the water was shut off, but not before the stream had reached as far as Ninth East, where is overflowed into the street, where there was afterwards an abundance of mud.

The accident was caused by the digging of the sewer trench from the university buildings. Eight men were at work from 11 o'clock Saturday night until 6 o'clock last evening. About 120 feet of pipe was thrown out, and the cost of the work will probably amount to about $350, which will fall upon the sewer contractor, Mr. A. G. Glauque. The latter says he notified the city engineer last Friday of the danger but got no satisfaction. Superintendent Hines is reported to have been looking for a break and there is a disposition on the part of the superintendent of waterworks and sewer contractor to place the entire responsibility for the bursting of the water main upon Engineer Kelsey.

A supplemental decree was filed in the district court today in the divorce case of Martha A. Armstrong vs Lavanda M. Armstrong. It provides that the plaintiff shall have the sole custody of the eight-year-old boy, Haskell R.

The defendant was formerly an attorney in this city, and went away shortly after his wife filed her suit, taking with him their son. The divorce was obtained by default, and the decree awarded the defendant the custody of the child on the condition that he allowed his wife to visit him at all reasonable times. The defendant, how-ever, has remained away from the State with the boy ever since.

Scandinavians Hold Sunday Afternoon Services in Tabernacle.

LARGE ATTENDANCE THERE

Addresses by President George Q. Cannon, Anthon H. Land, C. D. Fjelsted and a Lady from Chicago.

The services in the Tabernacle yesterday afternoon were conducted by the Scandinavians, and were presided over by Apostle Anthon H. Lund.

The choir sang the opening hymn, commencing, "All hall the glorious day."

Prayer was offered by Elder J. M.

Sjodahl, Continued by singing the hymn, Prayer is the soul's sincere desire.' Elder C. D. Fjeldsted, of the First Council of Seventies, was the first speaker. His sermon was in the Dan.

ish language.

At the close of Elder Fjeldsted's remarks, Miss Ida Peterson, daughter of the first missionary to Sweden now living, sang "Ave Maria" very sweetly, Elder Brigham Young next addressed the congregation. He was pleased in being privileged to be present and to mingle with those who were once strangers, but who were now of the same fold as himself. Inhabitants of Asia and Europe are gathered together in these valleys. Their languages are different they have ideas that are er in these valleys. Their languages are different, they have ideas that are dissimilar and the education which they have had is very much unlike; but when the Spirit of God came to them, they were united and were brought together as one. Although different languages are spoken by the Saints in many cases, great harmony exists among them because they have em-braced the same Gospel. Their future will be the same if they are faithful. They all have the same hopes for exaltation through the means of the re-stored Gospel.

Elder Young stated that it was a peculiar fact and one commented upon by men of the world, that in other lo-calities of our country the nationality of immigrants can easily be determined many years after their arriv-al in the country; but when foreigners come to Zion and mingle with the peo-de here in the valleys of the mountains. he identity of their nationality is soon

The great work commenced by Erasus Snow in taking the Gospel to Scaninavia was spoken of by Elder Young. The result of the sowing of the Gospe in Sweden and other European countries was manifest at the present ime. Hundreds and thousands of foreigners have gathered to Zion and have remained faithful to the Gospel. The honest in heart exist in all countries and are fast being found and the Gospel truths are taught them by the missionaries who go out year after year possessed of the same spirit that prompted Erastus Snow when he first preached Christ to the Scandinavian people fifty years ago.

Anthon C. Lund, son of Apostle Lund, then rendered a vocal solo, his splendid voice being heard to advantage, after which Elder Lund addressed the congregation in the Danish language. Mrs. Agnes Olsen-Thomas followed Elder Lund with a vocal solo.

President George Q. Cannon was the next speaker. He was greatly inter-ested in the conference of the Scandi-navians, which he termed a happy occasion. He commented upon the won-derful changes that had taken place during the last fifty years among the Scandinavian people. The speaker stated that, as a rule, he did not ap-prove of the different nationalities holding their meetings separately, but he favored the Scandinavian conference very much. The Scandinavian people are today looked up to and their many excellent characteristics are being immitated by the citizens of this nation. He spoke in high terms of the many of Scandinavian birth or of that origin They are an honest, persevering and industrious people, continued speaker, and the Americans are continued ginning to know their worth. He con-gratulated the Scandinavian people pon being here in Zion, and the people of this community in having them in their midst. President Cannon closed his remarks by speaking in high terms of the many excellent qualities of the Scandinavian people

Miss America, of Chicago, secretary of the International Council of Jewish Women, was introduced to the gregation, and snoke very interestingly for a few minutes. She spoke in high terms of the character of the women of Utah with whom she had come in

The meeting was brought to a close by the choir singing the anthem, "From afar, gracious Lord.". Patriarch John Smith pronounced the benediction.

The services were presided over by Eider Anthon H. Lund, and were opened by the Scandinavian choir under the leadership of Hagbert Ander singing the hymn commencing 'How firm a foundation.

Prayer was offered by Elder John Anderson of Grantsville. The choir sang the hymn, "Before the earth from chaos sprang.

The first speaker was Elder Hans O. Magleby, of Monroe. He said that he had been anticipating the Jubilee for ten years, and it was one of the happi-est events of his life. He bore a strong testimony to the truthfulness of the Gospel. The other speakers, all of whom followed in the same vein, were Joel Haglund, of Salt Lake; C. E. Peterson, of Ogden; J. F. F. Dorius, of Ephraim; President Knude Peterson, of Sanpete, and Patriarch O. N. Liljenquist, of Hyrum; Hagbert Anderson "I Know That My Redeemer Lives," in splendid style. anthem was "He Cometh Soon." EVENING SESSION.

The evening meeting was held in the Assembly hall, and was devoted to the bearing of testimonies. The services were opened by the choir singing the hymn beginning, "Think not when you gather to Zion."

Prayer was offered by Bishop Olson, of Sterling. Brief but earnest testimonies were borne by the following Jens Fredericksen, of Logan; J. G. Jor gensen, of Salina; Anna Beckstrom Snow; Wihelmine Danielsen, of Ogden; Christina Anderson, of Lehl; Jens Christiansen, of Spring City; C. P. Ron-Christiansen, of Spring City; C. P. Ron-how, of Panaca; Enock Jorgensen, of Manti; C. Carlson, of Salt Lake; O. H. Berg, of Provo; Mrs. J. H. Otte, of Logan; C. A. Ek, of Salt Lake; Lars E. Eggerston, of Provo; A. Anderstrand, of Salt Lake; H. J. Christensen, of Lo-gan, and L. M. Iverson, of Salt Lake. Andrew Peterson, president of the Scandinavian mission, was authorized to purchase the mission house at Copenhagen, the cost being about $5,000.
